The Harvard Environmental Law Review is published semiannually by Harvard Law School students. Views expressed in HELR are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of its members.

Editorial Policy: HELR has adopted a broad view of environmental affairs to include such areas as land use and property rights; climate change; air, water, and noise regulation; toxic substances control; radiation control; energy use; workplace pollution; science and technology control; and resource use and regulation. HELR is interested in developments on local, state, federal, foreign, or international levels.

Submissions: The editors welcome comments on and criticism of present and past volumes. The editors also welcome the submission of articles for publication. Authors interested in submitting manuscripts should contact HELR at the earliest possible date, at least six months before publication. Submissions by mail should be typed, and double-spaced. All submissions should also be by e-mail, with a Microsoft Word document as an attachment. The text of the e-mail should include the author's complete contact information. Footnotes should comply with The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (19th ed. 2010). Unpublished manuscripts will be returned only if accompanied by return postage.

Subscriptions: Subscription rates for the 2015 volume (Volume 39) are $42 domestic; $52 foreign (including Canada). For some international subscribers delivery via air mail may be more reliable than standard service, so please note in your inquiry if you would like surface or air mail. All correspondence concerning subscriptions should be addressed to the Subscriptions Manager, Student Journals Office, Harvard Law School, Caspersen Student Center, Suite 3039, 1585 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, MA 02138; +1 617 495-3694; E-mail to: sprosper@law.harvard.edu. Claims for missing issues of Volume 38 will be honored only until January 2016.

Back Issues: Back issues may be ordered directly from William S. Hein & Co., Inc., 1285 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14209-1987. Orders may also be placed by calling Hein at +1 800 828-7571, via fax at +1 716 883-8100, or e-mail to order@wshein.com. Back issues can also be found in electronic format for all your research needs on HeinOnline <http://heinonline.org>.

Permission to Copy: The articles in this issue may be reproduced and distributed, in whole or in part, by nonprofit institutions for educational purposes including distribution to students, provided that the copies are distributed at or below cost and identify the author, the Harvard Environmental Law Review, the volume, the number of the first page, and the year of the article's publication.
